One should – no, one MUST never give up – and rarely has this fundamental piece of wisdom been expressed more powerfully – and with such musical intensity! – as a timeless truth than on the 9th studio album URANUS OMNIBUS SANCTUS by the now legendary, Europe-wide acclaimed and highly decorated SPACE LORDS.

The journey to completing this richly resonant production took the band through a veritable asteroid belt of personal setbacks and technical near-disasters, which the core crew of the stoner orbiter – comprising

Matthias “HAZI” Wettstein on guitar,
Marcus “MUDGE” Schnitzler on drums and
Ekhard “AKEE” Kazmaier on bass

—and yet, thanks to the motto set out at the outset, it became yet another milestone on the journey towards the perfected, unmistakable SPACE LORDS sound – nirvana.

The song SURVIVE TO WIN is the musical embodiment of this timeless principle, which has enabled those who unconditionally align their lives with it to achieve the goals they have set for themselves since the dawn of time – and the SPACE LORDS are certainly among them.

This trio, so closely bonded both personally and creatively, is complemented and accompanied by tried-and-tested, like-minded collaborators such as DIDI HOLZNER, who lets his unmistakable organ veils and swathes drift and waft over the ethereally grooving SPACE LORDS soundscapes – or the masterful work of EROC, who has co-authored a new chapter in high fidelity within the SPACE LORDS Stoner Sound Bible!

URANUS OMNIBUS SANCTUS is due for release on LP, CD and digitally on 18 September 2026 via Tonzonen Records, distributed by Cargo Records Germany – get ready for a sonic journey through highs and lows to astral wisdom and deep-sea-worthy hypnotic grooves!
